6th August, 2015

Principal's Message

Dear Parents,

Thank you to Kathryne and her assistants - Lisa Sheridan, Tracy Rutter and Jacqueline Bell. The students enjoyed their pumpkin, bacon and ricotta stuffed pasta and rhubarb, berry and orange crumbles. It was delicious.

MILO in2 Cricket with Gary is a hit!! With lots of skill building activities. He is only coming if the weather is good, otherwise he will make the time up.

So proud of the students who went to camp. Great activities, good food, terrific accommodation, beautiful scenery and amazing kids! Well done to all.

The P & C Meeting is on Wednesday, 12th August commencing at 5:30 p.m. All welcome.

Thank you to Crookwell High School for organising the Amazing Race - lots of fantastic activities to get our students keen for high school.

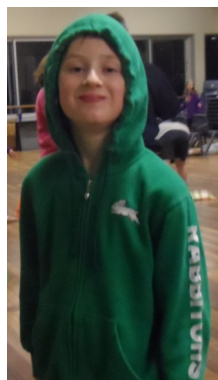

Don't forget to wear your jeans tomorrow, Friday, 7th August to support the worthwhile charity of Jeans for Genes - gold coin donation please.

Book Parade is on Friday, 28th August - get those costumes ready. Assembly will be at 1:45 p.m. followed by the parade.

We are still looking for 2 jackets belonging to Jackson Keith and Jason Moloney - they are clearly labelled. Please return to school if found. Thank you.

Kind Regards,

Liza Duncan
Principal ☺

P & C Meeting - Wednesday, 12th August commencing at 5:30 p.m. all welcome!!!

3-4-5-6 CURROBUNG ROOM

3-4-5-6 had a wonderful day on Tuesday, cooking up a storm in the Bunduluk Room with Mrs Kathryne Moloney and her wonderful parent helpers.

Everyone enjoyed the preparation and cooking and most students enjoyed the finished product. We wrote about our experience in our Cooking Books.

Parts have been given out for the production of "Alice in Wonderland." We will be sending out information about costumes soon. Keep Wednesday, 16th September free to come to the School Play!!! We are all getting very excited about the show!
