Principal's Message

Dear Parents & Families,

The Spotted Quoll Project Expo Day at Crookwell High School was a great success. It was a terrific presentation of our excursions and project based learning. Well done to our community of small schools and Crookwell High. Thank you to Stephanie Coble-Runge, the coordinator from Taronga Park Zoo. Evelyn Unwin won the competition to name one of the Spotted Quoll's - Jinx. How exciting and what a great name, well done, Evelyn.

Reports are attached to this week's newsletter as is the Parent/Teacher advice and time slot request form. Please return to school asap to secure your desired time (if possible).

Mrs Natalie Kerr has decided to continue with her studies next term and has enjoyed her time at Taralga Public School. We wish her well in her endeavours.

Mrs Linda McDade will be on K-1-2 for the rest of 2016, we look forward to welcoming Linda from the beginning of Term 3.

Students are able to wear sports clothes of their choice tomorrow for a gold coin donation to Year 6 fundraising.

Don't forget pie day tomorrow, pick up pies from the Bunduluk Room - kitchen - from 11:00 am. Please support our P & C Election Stall on Saturday, 2nd July. The students have made chocolate crackles and rocky road to sell at the stall.

Happy, safe holidays to all from Saturday, 2nd July until students return on Tuesday, 19th July.

Regards,

Liza Duncan

3-4-5-6 CURROBUNG CLASS ROOM

Years 3-4-5-6 had a wonderful day at the Spotted Quoll Expo at Crookwell High School. The students presented their many projects, with a speech in front of a large audience.

Some of the projects included our Quoll story book, traps, soft toys, song, information booklet and packaging. All students were very active trying to answer the quiz questions at the end of the day.

Congratulations to Evelyn, whose suggestion for a Quoll name was accepted by Taronga Zoo Keepers. We will be able to visit 'Jinx' soon at Taronga Zoo's Quoll Exhibit.

P & C NEWS

Thank you to everyone who has placed orders as part of the Pie Drive through Bryants. The orders will be delivered to the school tomorrow morning at 11:00 am. You may collect your pies and other freshly baked goodies from the Creative Room.

Saturday, 2nd July is the Federal Election. The P & C will be holding a BBQ, cake stall, bric-a-brac and craft stall in the foyer of the Memorial Hall. Donations of cakes and slices are welcome, and can be dropped off at the hall on Saturday morning. We are setting up tomorrow, Friday, if anyone would like to help out. We will also be selling raffle tickets for the chance to win one of three loads of wood - each kindly donated by families of our school.

Thank you for your ongoing support. We look forward to another fun and successful term at Taralga Public School. Enjoy the holidays!
