Dear Families & Friends,

NAPLAN results are attached to this Newsletter. Please see Ms Grahame if you wish to discuss your child's results.

Our annual School Play is on Wednesday, 26th September, 7:00 pm at Taralga War Memorial Hall. Bring your family and friends to this fantastic production of "Frog & Toad." The students have been practising all term, singing, dancing and acting. They all shine on the night like true stars. Please send all costumes in by tomorrow for the photo shoot for the program. Let Ms Grahame know if your child cannot attend either of the performances.

Entry cost is $10.00 a family, $5.00 a single and includes the Program. Please bring a plate to share for supper. The P & C raffle is a always a great prize, so bring your $$$.

Congratulations to Taylah Sheridan who collects a medal at Sports Power on Tuesday, 25th September for being Years 8/9 Girls Cross Country Champion. Well done! A great effort.

Congratulations to Renee Buggie, who is a past student and will be School Captain of Crookwell High School in 2019. Also congratulations to Jem Green, another past student who will be School Captain of Mulwaree High School in 2019, with Annabel Croker elected as Vice Captain for 2019. Taralga Public School produces fantastic leaders and we are thrilled for Renee, Jem and Annabel. A wonderful achievement for all three.

Congratulations to our Relay Team - Tom, Callum, Lucinda and Hannah who came 2nd at the Regional Carnival last Friday. They are off to the PSSA State Athletics Carnival on Thursday, 1st November. Well done, a fabulous achievement, we are so proud.

3-4-5-6 CURROBUNG CLASSROOM

The Currobung Room students have been busy, busy, busy this week. We have been working on maths, including maths about weather and statistics.

We have painted the backdrop with an amazing tree containing the 4 seasons, to represent "A Year with Frog and Toad." We have been busy practising down at the Hall, putting the finishing touches on our performances.

Please remember to bring in your costumes tomorrow, so that we can photograph you for the Play Program. Costumes will then stay at school until Tuesday, 25th for the Dress Rehearsal at 12:00 pm.

Any queries about costumes, please ring Ms Grahame at school on 48402047.

PLAY PRACTISE -

Can't wait for this performance by our wonderful, talented students.

THE OFFICE CORNER:

Don't forget --- Friday, 28th September, last day of Term 3, is FOOTY COLOURS DAY. Wear you favourite footy team jersey / colours etc. and please bring a gold coin donation for this very worthwhile charity. Thank you.

There is NO Kid's Club or Guitar until Week 2, Term 4 - we hope Rev. Sallyanne has a speedy recovery.
