3-4-5-6 CURROBUNG CLASSROOM

Another busy week in the Currobung Room, which is almost finished being painted! This week, students have been enjoying writing their narratives about an imaginary room and building a small model of the room. We are hoping to publish a book of the stories soon.

We have also been enjoying using our percussion instruments, (Boomwhackers, xylophone, Glockenspiels and triangles) to play various musical pieces. We hope to perform one of these pieces for the school at a later date.

In maths we are concentrating on looking at what the question is asking us to do and being careful in coming up with our answers.

Please remember Homework Books and Reader Bags should be returned every Friday to be marked.

WALL OF FAME
